GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Smith Center Going Up!

Construction on the Charles E. Smith Center for Physical Education and Recreation is proceeding on schedule, and the $6.6 million athletic complex should be complete by May 1975.

The Smith Center will house such facilities as a 5,000-seat basketball arena (featuring a tartan surface floor which is more versatile and easier to maintain than the traditional wood floor); an eight-lane swimming pool; handball, squash, tennis, badminton, and volleyball courts; and an exercise room.

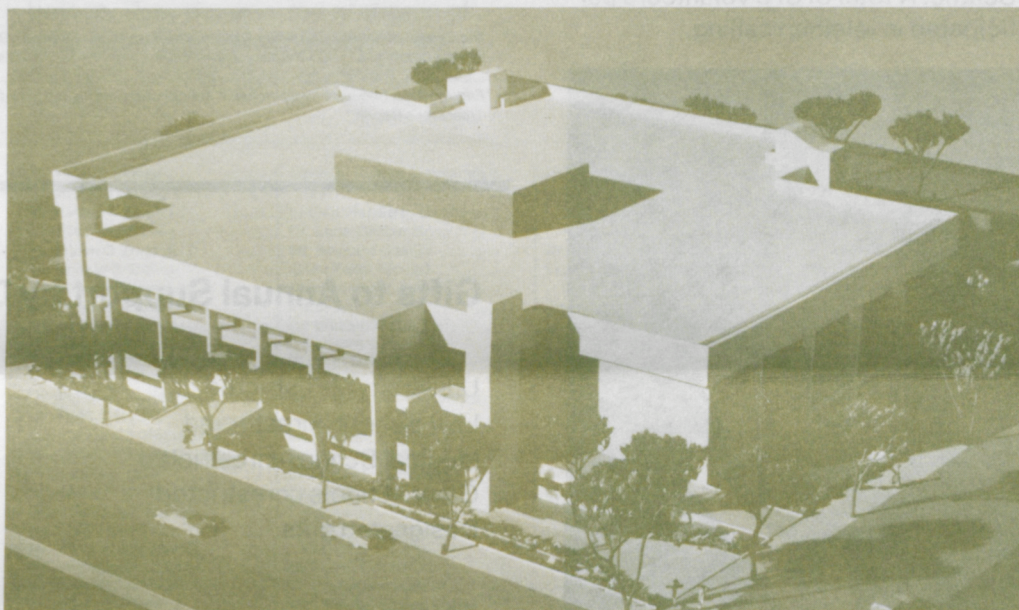

"The Smith Center is the most exciting thing ever to happen in the athletic and recreational needs of the University," says athletic director Bob Faris.

Fund-raising for the structure is going fairly well, reports Dr. Seymour Alpert, vice-president for development. "Pledges and asserts totaling about $3.6 million have already been received," he says, "and the final big push to complete the funding will begin this fall."

Note: GW lettermen who would like to receive the new publication "Let-terman Sports News" should send name, year, sport, and current address to Bob Faris, Department of Athletics, GWU.

4 Trustees Chosen

The Board of Trustees elected four new members at its annual meeting in May. Joel Barlow, JD '35, attorney, and Frank K. Dickey, executive director of the National Commission on Accrediting, were elected charter trustees, and Abe Pollin, BA '45, president of Abe Pollin Inc., and Joseph S. Wright, Sr., LLB '63, chairman of the board of Zenith Radio Corporation, were elected alumni trustees.

Joel Barlow has been a partner in the Washington law firm of Covington and Burling since 1941. He is a fellow of the American Bar Association and a member of the Order of the Coif. He has served as president, chairman, or director of national organizations in the areas of taxes, finance, and commerce, and as a trustee of many educational institutions.

Dr. Frank K. Dickey has been executive director of the National Commission on Accrediting since 1965, and has also served as executive director of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and president of the University of Kentucky. He holds the B.A. from Transylvania College and the M.A. and Ed.D. from University of Kentucky. He was a postdoctoral fellow at Harvard.

Abe Pollin is chairman of the board of the Capital Centre, the National Basketball Association, and president of the Washington Bullets in the NBA. He holds the National Hockey League Washington franchise and is a member of the Washington Board of Trade. For two years he served GW's annual support fund as SGBA national chairman.

Joseph S. Wright, Sr., has been chairman of Zenith Radio since 1968. He is a trustee of the University of Chicago, a director of Henrotin Hospital and the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago, the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and the Commonwealth Edison Corporation. He received a GW Alumni Achievement Award in 1968.

Retiring from the Board are William G. White, charter trustee, and Brooks Hays and Harry Duncan, who will become honorary trustees.

One Million Dollars 12,000 Donors

Nancy Derrow, an administrative assistant in Thurston Hall, put her check in campus mail and enclosed a note to President Elliott: "It is in agreement with your high opinion of GW, and in appreciation of your extra effort of 'running in the black,' that I offer the enclosed check. . . ."

"Your note and your check for $100 are truly an inspiration," responded President Elliott, "to all of us who are concerned with the future of George Washington University. It is support and dedication of this kind which have permitted the University to move forward during the present difficult times and which in the long run guarantees its continued progress. On behalf of all, I thank you."

Nancy was one of more than 12,000 donors who contributed $1,116,281 to the 1973-74 Annual Support Fund.

"This is the second year in a row that the Annual Fund has exceeded $1 million," says Dr. Seymour Alpert, vice-president for development. "We can all be extremely proud of this achievement, and are grateful for the efforts of National Chairman Donald C. Cook, telethon chairman J. Dallas Shirley, and the individual school chairmen."

One feature of this year's fund was an expanded program of telethons, which brought pledges of over $118,000. In addition to the monthlong Washington telethon, which netted $70,000, "George" went calling in 24 other cities: Atlanta, Baltimore, Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Hampton, Va., Houston, Indianapolis, Los Angeles, Miami, Minneapolis, New Orleans, New York, Norfolk, Philadelphia, Portland, Ore., Richmond, St. Louis, St. Petersburg, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, and Seattle. A total of 370 volunteers participated in telethon calling.

The Luther Rice Society

The members of the Luther Rice Society are honored and recognized for their noteworthy financial support of the University.

Members of the Luther Rice Society have given $1,000 or more each year or pledged $5,000 over a five-year period. Life members are those who contribute $10,000 or make bequests and endowments of $25,000 or more. Through their generosity these contributors are helping to put the University on a sounder financial base than ever before. They deserve the gratitude of all segments of the community—the trustees, faculty, staff, students and alumni.

Julian Goodman, NBC Head To Chair 1974-75 Fund

Julian Goodman, BA '48, will serve as National Chairman of GW's 1974-75 Annual Support Fund. President Lloyd H. Elliott has announced.

"We are extremely fortunate," said Elliott, "to have a man of Julian Goodman's abilities and distinction to succeed Don Cook. I know all alumni and friends of the University will want to help him reach the goal for the '74-75 Fund, which is $1,500,000."

Mr. Goodman, chief executive officer of the National Broadcasting Company, became chairman of the NBC board of directors on April 1, 1974, after serving as NBC president for eight years. He has established himself as a strong and effective spokesman for broadcasting, and as a creative force within the ranks of top TV management. He has been an industry leader on a variety of issues involving the relationship between broadcasting and government, and the Constitutional right of the American people to a free flow of information.

Julian Goodman was born in Kentucky in 1922, attended Western Kentucky University, but left before graduation to join the army in 1943. After the war, he earned his A.B. degree at GW. He joined NBC's Washington radio station in 1945, moved up to various positions in NBC News and then into NBC television news and special events. Moving to New York, he became vice president of NBC

News in 1961, executive vice president in 1965, and president of NBC in 1966.

Among Mr. Goodman's many notable accomplishments at NBC are: production of one of the "Great Debates" between John Kennedy and Richard Nixon in 1960; initiating live broadcasts of Congressional committee hearings; obtaining permission for the first filming of a Presidential news conference; and pioneering the use of video tape in covering news events.

As broadcasting's only top management figure with a background in program production, Mr. Goodman has made innovations in children's programming as well as cultural and informational programming. Under his direction, NBC funded a research study on the effects of TV on the behavior of young people.

For these and other accomplishments, Mr. Goodman has been the recipient of numerous honorary degrees and awards. These include the 1972 Gold Medal, highest honor of the International Radio and Television Society; the "Kentuckian of the Year" award for 1970; the Distinguished Alumni Award of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities in 1973; the Paul White Memorial Award of the Radio and Television News Directors Association in 1973; and, in 1966, the GWU Alumni Achievement Award.
